Council appeals for park support

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

BOROUGH councillors must "allow Haverhill to move forward" and give revised plans for a retail park on the town's outskirts the green light.

That's the message from one town councillor after he and his colleagues threw their unanimous support behind plans for the former Project Office Furniture site.

At a planning meeting this week, councillors said they were impressed by the revised plans for the site in Ehringshausen Way after the developer's last proposal was rejected.

But for it to become reality, St Edmundsbury Borough Council must ratify the decision – which may prove a sticking point given its previous opposition. In the past, both councils had raised concerns that HPG Development's proposal would prove detrimental to High Street retailers.

Phillip French, town councillor for South ward, said the developer's presentation exceeded expectations, adding: "It is a very exciting project. Nobody spoke against it."

"We have made it very clear to St Edmundsbury that this is what we want and what Haverhill needs."

"The borough councillors seem to be trying to wrap the town centre up in cotton wool but we have to have some competition."

Vandals put chair on car's roof

AN OFFICE chair was placed on the roof of a car in yet another case of mindless vandalism in a Suffolk town. The item of furniture caused more than £520 worth damage to the vehicle's paint on the evening of March 25.

The car was parked behind Boots in Brook Service Road, Haverhill. Anyone with any information should contact Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100.

HAVERHILL RUNNERS TAKE THEIR MARKS FOR LONDON MARATHON 2011 THIS WEEKEND

Countdown: Sainsbury's deputy manager Martin Balmer, who will run the London Marathon on Sunday. Picture: Warren Gunn 726514.

Final preparations for marathon effort

WITH the London Marathon just days away, local runners are embarking on their final push for fundraising and training before the event.

Martin Balmer, deputy manager at Haverhill's Sainsbury's store in Hanchett End, will be one of 36,000 in this year's 26-mile endurance test – and is running for the Stroke Association.

The 53-year-old said: "I lost my father from a stroke and my mother from related high blood pressure, so the charity means a lot.

"This is the fourth marathon in a row I have done and I am very excited. It is a great day and the atmosphere is tremendous."

This year Martin, who previously ran for the study of infant deaths, will be running with son John, 33, for the first time and wants to break the five hour mark.

He said: "John will have to keep up with me – not the other way round."

There are buckets in Sainsbury's for customers to support Martin with their change, and donations can also be made online at www.virginmoneygiving.com/vimbabre.

Martin added: "Our target is to raise £2,500 and any help would be fantastic. Last year when I put the buckets out we collected more than £500."

Also running is Ivan Layzell – who works at Haverhill fire station, on behalf of the East Anglian Air Ambulance – in full firefighting kit. For information on how to donate, visit www.eaaa.org.uk.

Ready, Freddie, go! Dad's race for liver disease cash

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A year on from his newborn son being diagnosed with a life threatening liver disease, a father is determined to run the London Marathon to support the charity that has helped his family cope during a tortuous 12 months.

Mark Howell, of Horseheath, will take to the streets on Sunday in a bid to raise £5,000 for Children's Liver Disease Foundation (CLDF), which helped Freddie after he was diagnosed with the rare and life threatening biliary atresia.

Mark, running the marathon for the second time, praised the first-class care and early surgery Freddie received at Kings College Hospital in Cambridge. The youngster is now healthy and has just celebrated his first birthday.

The UK and Ireland director for wireless network specialists Meru Networks said: "We have two other healthy children – Evie who is 4 and Harry, 3 – so finding out that Freddie had a liver disease was a real shock.

"We wanted to find out as much as we could about his condition and that's where CLDF came in. It's very daunting to think that your child has a condition like this but you need all the facts and you need support and that's what CLDF gives us."

On February 27 last year, Mark's wife Emily gave birth to a seemingly healthy Freddie, but on March 31 was asked by her midwife to have her baby checked in Addenbrooke's, Cambridge, after he failed to put on weight.

Following ultrasounds on his liver, Freddie received a liver biopsy at Kings, and shortly afterwards consultants confirmed his condition.

Biliary atresia is an extremely rare condition and affects just 20 to 40 children a year in the UK and often results in transplantation.

Mark said of the 26-mile challenge: "I may not put in a record time but whatever it takes, I'll finish it – I've really got something to run for this time."

Catherine Arkley, chief executive of CLDF, added: "Each day in the UK, two children will be diagnosed with a liver disease. CLDF is dedicated to supporting those children and their families, providing information to healthcare professionals and funding research into all aspects of childhood liver disease.

"We rely on fundraising for 75 per cent of our income so are delighted that Mark has chosen to run the London Marathon for us."

Town council backs new retail park plan

"We just really want to see it go ahead. People need to remember that this town is growing fast in population and we need to move with it."

The design for the site incorporates two large retail units and one smaller unit, which planners say will sell bulk goods. There is also room for a McDonald's restaurant, a builders' merchants and further warehouse space, rumoured to be taken up by DIY outlet, Wickes. More than 250 jobs could be created.

Pat Hanlon, East ward town councillor, said he hoped the borough will feel its concerns have also been met by the new design.

He said: "The two big shops and one smaller one are now going to be different than what had been said before. They will be selling bulk goods and shouldn't damage town shops – we will be able to attract big name stores."

"The site will be landscaped, kept tidy and kept clean. It will hopefully boost the town. We want to stop people going to Cambridge and Bury for their shopping and keep them in Haverhill."

"It seems that the officers at the borough council are in support, and hopefully the councillors will take notice of the town council's decision and give it the go ahead and allow Haverhill to move forward."

Karen Richardson, a town and borough councillor for Haverhill East, said: "We are lucky to have councillors from Haverhill in the [borough] planning committee, alongside people from elsewhere."

"Personally, I would welcome new employment opportunities for Haverhill."

HPG Developments told the meeting it could start work on the site by Christmas if the plans were approved by the development control committee on April 28.

A walk in the park: Stepping Stones staff, parents and youngsters enjoyed a sun-filled picnic on their last day of term.

Picture: David Johnson 726584.

An egg-cellent start to the Easter holidays

EASTER began with a picnic in the sunshine for children from a local pre-school.

Tiny tots from the Stepping Stones group, based at Coupals County Primary School, were joined by their families for a fun Easter-themed get-together in Haverhill last Friday.

The youngsters, under the age of 5, walked from their school in Chalkstone Way to East Town Park in Coupals Road for an end-of-term treat before they broke up for their holidays.

Children played in the park before settling down for their picnic, provided by the Stepping Stones staff.

Louise Cohen, a parent at the event, said: "The kids all had a great time in the sunshine. The weather was gorgeous and they all seemed to enjoy their picnic."

Families were also invited to an early Easter egg hunt in the school grounds on Sunday. Staff hid dozens of egg tokens around the pre-school for the youngsters to scavenge for.

There was chocolate for all the children, a prize for finding the golden egg, and colouring sheets. Refreshments and snacks were also available, with money raised going towards a computer for the classroom.

Elaine McManus, Stepping Stones manager, said: "We were very pleased with the turn out and everyone had a fun time."

Vision Van rolls up to hear your ideas

SHOPPERS will be asked how they picture their town in the future to help set targets for the next 20 years.

A Vision Van – equipped with activities and information to help prompt ideas on how investment in the future should be made – will be at tomorrow's market in Haverhill. Ian Poole, planning policy manager for St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said: "We are asking local people to share their vision for Haverhill so we can try and make it happen."

"Recent investment in Haverhill came about because people told us what they wanted."

The Vision Van will be in the Market Place from 9am to 3.30pm. Anyone who would like to share their vision can visit www.haverhillvision.org.uk, call (01284) 757368, or complete a postcard, available at the arts centre and council offices.

Free fun for all at opening of new plaza

A NEW public open space will be revealed in Haverhill.

The grand opening of Haverhill's plaza, next to the cinema in Ehringhausen Way, will take place on Saturday from 11.30am to 2.30pm.

There will be face painting for children and live music from Nice Manors, the Castle Manor band returning from a European tour and singer Jade Donno, who recently performed in the Open Mic UK final at London's O2 arena.

Extra hours for fast food firm

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A FAST food outlet can now stay open until 2am each day – despite objections from residents and the concerns of police officers.

The KFC restaurant and takeaway, in Ehringhausen Way, Haverhill, has been granted an extension to its opening hours after St Edmundsbury Borough Council's development control committee ruled there was not enough evidence to support a refusal.

Fears that Haverhill's ongoing anti-social behaviour problems will worsen led to a number of objections being raised at the meeting, but they were not deemed relevant to the application.

Conservative borough councillor for Haverhill North, Anne Gower attended the meeting and objected on behalf of concerned constituents, who were also represented by members of Chalkstone Tenants' and Residents' association.

Speaking after the meeting, Cllr Gower said: "The committee decided that there was no supporting body of evidence for the complaints and there was nothing the planning committee could do but accept the application."

Committee says no evidence to back anti-social behaviour claims

Police officers were also worried about the eatery becoming another hotspot for anti-social behaviour in the town. They said they had been called to the premises on a number of occasions, most recently in late January, to deal with misbehaving youths.

But the committee heard that these cases had taken place predominantly in the early evening and were therefore not relevant to the extended opening hours.

The new hours will apply for six months – a reduction on the 12-month recommended trial period – before it can be considered for a permanent extension.

Cllr Gower added: "I accepted the approval for six months and we will see what effect the extension of opening hours will have on anti-social behaviour."

"I would now ask residents to monitor and report any incidents but they must be directly related to KFC and its opening hours."

Ishtiaq Rabbani, manager of KFC in Haverhill, said: "We are very pleased to have extended our hours – it is good for us and our late night customers."

"We accept we had problems with kids three of four months ago but since then, by working with the police, we have not had any problems and expect this to continue."

KFC, which is adjacent to the fire station and close to the leisure centre and cinema, has already operated until 2am on Fridays and Saturdays, and until midnight every other day, since May 2009.

There were no objections to the extra hours from environmental health officers or the town council.

Pupils link up for storybook project

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A SPECIAL book is to be written by more than 300 local children – and they have been told to “let their imaginations run wild”.

The project, called The Torch Book, has been set up by Haverhill Town Council, Haverhill Library and Suffolk County Council Extended Services, and is being piloted in Burton End, St Felix, Clements, Westfield, Coupals, New Cangle, Kedington, Wickhambrook and Thurlow primary schools.

James Campbell, who has made a name for himself as a storyteller, author and children's stand-up comedian, will be heading the team. James is to get the ball rolling by writing the first chapter of The Torch Book, based on his experiences with children at workshops in Haverhill Library.

Sanphra Willmott, library manager, said of the recent workshops: “Over a two-day period we had more than 300 children visit Haverhill Library. The sessions with James created a lively and wonderful environment, full of laughter and great ideas.”

“James encouraged the children to let their imaginations run wild. We very much enjoyed having the students here and to host the beginnings of such an educational, fun project.”

Once James is finished, the book will be passed from school to school where Year 2 pupils will have one week in which to write the next chapter.

An illustrator will visit each school to work with small groups, providing pictures for the book, which will be printed and made available to the young authors and their families and friends once it is completed.

A reading of The Torch Book will be premiered at a pyjama party for the children and their parents in July at Haverhill Arts Centre in High Street.

Chance to take on darts star 'Wolfie'

DARTS fans have the opportunity to go up against one of their heroes for a charity event at a local club.

Martin “Wolfie” Adams, British Darts Organisation's world number one, is to take to the oche at Haverhill Ex-Servicemen's Club in Quaker's Lane on May 6.

Wolfie will play 14 best-of-three matches all in the name of the Cystic Fibrosis charity, against preliminary competition winners.

Club members can compete on Monday and on Friday,

April 22 for a fee of £3, and anyone can turn up and throw on either Sunday or on Friday April 29 at the cost of £5.

Each of the winners will receive 50 per cent of that evening's entrance fees with the other half going straight to the charity.

In addition he or she will receive free entry to the May event and will be one of the 14 to take the big man on.

For more information contact Steve Russell on 07854 166 721.

Fun and games at new club

AN AFTERNOON of activities for young and old welcomed the opening of a new club house.

Haverhill Tennis Club opened the facility last Saturday afternoon at the town's leisure centre in Ehringhausen Way.

The day was marked by cardio tennis sessions, sessions with a ball machine, fun tennis tournaments for adults and children, followed by a barbecue.

Green fingers: staff, parents and pupils prepare to plant their bulbs.

Pupils dig deep for a greener future

RIDGEWELL Primary School pupils planted more than 500 daffodil bulbs last week as part of their environment day.

The day was aimed at teaching pupils about the importance of protecting the environment, and making them aware that they are part of a wider world.

Gill Ansell, teaching assistant and forest school leader at Ridgewell, organised the event.

She said: "We did a huge amount of planting. We planted fruit trees and native trees and replaced the old fence. It looks fantastic and we got everything done that we wanted to."

The weather was on their side on one of the warmest days of the year so far, and pupils, parents and teachers all dug deep to help with the planting.

The school is also now the proud owner of a green house constructed entirely of old soft drink bottles.

Mrs Ansell added: "It's been so heartening to see it all come together. It took lots of planning but the kids enjoyed it so much they wanted to do it all again next week."

Head supports academies bid

MORE schools in Suffolk will be able to apply for academy status after a new Government initiative was launched this week.

The move follows the increasing demand over the last year from headteachers across the UK for their school to become an academy – during March 162 schools became academies, taking the current total to 629 with a further 473 in the pipeline.

Suffolk already has four academies, including Samuel Ward Academy in Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, which gained academy status in 2010, but there are expected to be many more in years to come.

Until now only schools which Ofsted judged as 'outstanding' or 'good with outstanding features' were able to apply for conversion, while others had to apply in partnership with stronger establishments.

However, the Coalition now says it will consider applications from any school that can make a compelling case based on exam performance, Ofsted reports, and, where applicable, support special needs.

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Academies were designed by the last Labour government to allow publicly-funded schools to operate independently from local politics, giving parents and governors more of a say over how children are taught.

Howard Lay, headteacher at Samuel Ward, said: "Being an academy has given us much greater freedom.

"There is more energy on where we can take the school – we can implement decisions quicker and there is more flexibility with what we teach.

"There is, of course, more responsibility now, especially financially, but we continue to get better and have really developed the Samuel Ward brand."

He added that he thought it was only a matter of time before Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College, in Eastern Avenue, followed in Samuel Ward's footsteps – and said he feared almost all secondary schools in Suffolk would become academies before long.

However, Graham White, Suffolk

– Howard Lay, Samuel Ward Academy

rep for the National Union of Teachers, said he was deeply concerned about the trend across the county.

He said: "My main worry is that academies will move away from national paying conditions set in state education for our members. There is a lot of potential for harm.

"There is also less accountability to the local community, and there is no proof at all that schools improve with academy status."

In the east of England, academies already make up more than 17 per cent of all secondary schools, while more than 22 per cent of maintained secondary schools in the region have applied to convert.

It's so sad to lose our group

Sir, We are very saddened that funding for On Track ceased at the end of March. On Track supported many disadvantaged families in the town. Their senior family worker, Anne Boyd, set up and facilitated our group.

The Children's Centre, also having to cut costs, announced it will no longer be able to fund crèche workers for our group. While we can continue to fund our crèche workers until the end of the summer term, we need additional funding to continue beyond that date.

Our group, which has been running for 14 years, provides counselling and emotional support to women, and has been recognised as a model for other groups throughout Suffolk. We were heartened by the response of Haverhill Town Council to our plight. Although any decision regarding future funding still needs to be taken, we know that the councillors value what our group offers.

We are pleased to know that Cllr Maureen Byrne, in particular, supports our group. As well as being a renowned champion of women's rights, we recognise the support and representation she has made for many groups in the town. We thank her for her offer of counselling services as and when required.

So where would cuts have been?

Sir, I refer to the letter from Mr Stroud in your edition of April 7 (Reckless plans make no sense).

I was surprised to read an attack on the Government in a local paper, until of course I realised it would be linked to the local elections taking place on May 5.

Mr Stroud, local elections are about local issues and electing people who will address the issues and represent the people of Haverhill, whether that be on the town council or the borough council. Point scoring by raising national matters has no place, in my opinion, in these elections.

However, he may wish to answer one question that no one in the Labour Party has answered. George Osborne has cut £16billion from the national budget and the previous Labour chancellor was prepared to cut £14billion, but nobody on the

Facts we should be aware of

Sir, On May 5, we are able to elect councillors to reform Haverhill town and St Edmundsbury borough councils and, having attended many town council meetings, I think it appropriate to make the following comments.

If you do not intend to vote that is your choice. If, however, you are interested in local affairs there are some facts about which you should be aware:

■ Haverhill Town Council consists of 16 councillors who receive no payment and a clerk who is salaried. A third of the present councillors were co-opted and not elected. Borough and county councillors do receive an allowance.

■ Haverhill Town Council meetings are conducted to a strict procedure and members of the public are only allowed to speak during time allotted for public forum. Questions put by the public are usually answered by the clerk either at the time or by letter.

■ To comply with the wish of Mr Cameron that we play a greater role in local government, some changes are needed to the conduct of the town council. We need to be not only better informed of what is being done on our behalf but to have a greater opportunity for our views to be considered.

With this in mind I suggest these observations are considered:

1. A vital duty of the town clerk is to advise and give full guidance to council on financial, legal and procedural matters. Unfortunately, due in many instances to inexperience, councillors have relied too much on the clerk. For example, it is he and not the council leader who reports to the press.

2. No report by a borough or county councillor is given at council meetings. It must be assumed that county councillors voted to agree with the cuts to the funding of various services, so why not come to us and justify their actions.

3. There should be a greater opportunity for our opinions to be considered before major decisions are made.

4. We elect councillors, not the clerk.

5. Their duty is to heed his expertise, listen more to us, debate the issue and agree a decision.

I urge you to vote for someone whom you consider to truly represent your views, and for you to be more involved in what your representatives are doing on your behalf.

Frank Bradsell
Haverhill

Letters should arrive by noon on the Monday before publication. Full name and address must be supplied and details will be withheld only in exceptional circumstances. Letters should be no longer than 250 words and may be edited.

A first-class performance

A TALENTED performer has won a rare scholarship to a prestigious performing arts school in London.

Callum Henderson, who lives in Parkside, Haverhill with his mother Tina and older sister Paige, beat thousands of competitors to earn the only full-time paid-for place at Sylvia Young Theatre School in Westminster.

The 12-year-old attended an open audition in February and was shocked to find out the good news afterwards, hoping at best to claim one of the two part-time scholarships.

Callum is now set to move to the capital in September where he will live with a host family and study the performing arts alongside his school subjects until he is 16.

The youngster is no stranger to the stage, having wowed audiences in the West End in his role as Artful Dodger in Oliver! from May 2007 to June 2010. He also starred in comedian Tim Minchin's critically acclaimed adaptation of Matilda in Stratford upon Avon late last year.

Mum Tina, 41, formerly with Haverhill fire service, said she was delighted about her son's continued success.

She said: "I am really proud of him. The fact that he is just a normal boy from Haverhill makes it all the more special.

"He has shown that a normal boy from a normal town can achieve big things. He still has never had dancing or singing lessons.

"He has been working towards this for two years and has been rehearsing a lot for his auditions. Callum never looked at any other schools – he always had his heart set on Sylvia Young's."

Callum, whose talent was first spotted by his teachers at Haverhill's St Felix Primary School in School Lane, added: "The best I had hoped for was a half scholarship but to get the only full one was amazing. I couldn't believe it. I can't wait to start."

Sylvia Young Theatre School, which was recently nominated top performing arts school by the Stage newspaper, boasts alumni including Leona Lewis, Billie Piper and Amy Winehouse. While the course is predominantly musical based, Callum said he was keen to act on television and in films.

The Year 7 student, whose hobbies include football, cricket and fishing, now attends St Louis Catholic Middle School in Bury St Edmunds.

Dump truck stolen

FOUR youths broke into a building site and drove a dumper truck across a field before abandoning it in a road.

The suspects are wanted by Haverhill police after they tampered with the vehicle in a construction site in Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, managed to start it and then went for a joy ride before leaving it in Green Road at around 9.20pm on Monday. Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Andrew Green at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Free golf sessions

YOUNGSTERS have been invited to free golf taster sessions all this month.

Enthusiasts aged from 14 through to 24 have the chance to dip their toe in the golfing waters at Haverhill Leisure Centre in Ehringhausen Way at sessions running until April 30.

Turn up between 9.30-10.30am and coaches will show the ropes to all participants. For more information call the centre on (01440) 712628.

Vote deadline today

PEOPLE have until today to register to vote for the coming borough, town and parish council elections.

It only takes a few minutes. Call (01284) 757131 or print off the form from www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

Postal votes will be sent out on Monday. The election will take place on May 5.

HAVERHILL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUSINESS AWARDS 2011

Claire's happy to help youngsters

Former star of TV's The Apprentice, Claire Young, is looking forward to recognising the entrepreneurial achievements of youngsters in Haverhill at the upcoming Chamber of Commerce
Business Awards.

Claire, who was a runner-up in the hit BBC show in 2008, is set to host the ceremony at Chilford Hall, Linton, on Saturday, May 14, and will also be on hand to present the trophy for young entrepreneur of the year.

She told the Weekly News that she was in the process of going through the nominations and was delighted to be involved.

The 32-year-old said: "It is quite some time since I was last in Suffolk and I'm really looking forward to coming back to the area.

"What I am looking for in a winner is someone who has taken an idea and turned it into reality – that they have shown the courage, energy and tenacity to make it happen.

"I'd like to see youngsters trying to take ideas to a different level, and if possible I always like to see some personality in their plans.

"The evening should be great. In this country we are so reluctant to give ourselves a pat on the back. We work hard and should play hard to."

Since The Apprentice, Claire has spent a lot of time working with youngsters in an effort to inspire them to move into enterprise and set up businesses in the future, through motivational

Winning ways: The Apprentice star Claire Young

CP

speaking, workshops, and events and challenges.

She said: "Now I think business has become more fashionable,
particularly with shows like The Apprentice and Dragons Den proving so popular.

"Applications for last year's Junior Apprentice were three times the number of those for The Apprentice – it has become a very topical thing."

Despite the improvements in awareness of enterprise and the opportunities available, Johannesburg-born Claire said there was still a lot more that could be done in schools.

"The problem in too many schools is that students are spoon-fed information. This is not what enterprise is about – they need to think on their feet."

Claire added that schools like Castle Manor
Business and Enterprise
School, which opened a student-run bistro last week, were setting a good example.

She said: "I think every secondary school should have student-run business, whether it is a bistro or a tuck shop or whatever.

"It is vital to offer aspirations."

Tickets for the event are £63.83, plus VAT, or £600, plus VAT, for a table of 10.

Included in the price is a sparkling drinks
reception, a three-course banquet, and entertainment from popular live band

Tangent, followed by a disco. Tickets available at

APPROVED DEALER

Life through the lens: Mark Allard took three weeks to edit his film, which has now been posted on the internet. CP

Filmmaker aims for an online hit

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A music video maker from Haverhill has released his latest project and is hopeful it will become an internet hit.

Mark Allard, of Landseer Court, shot the film over seven hours for local soft rock band This Broken Empire's new song, Cigarette-Stained Son.

The video was released last month on the MyHaverhill website and has already received a great deal of attention.

The 24-year-old, who works as a projectionist in the Cineworld cinema in Ehringshausen Way, said: "The video has a very creative use of film effects, such as faux film damage and aged film effects, to make a very unique and highly artistic combination of footage and high resolution HD imagery."

"The video was shot in a visually stunning graffitied environment local to the town."

The work also uses extreme close-up photography to offer a unique view of instrument use. It took three weeks to edit. Mark has received publicity from his employers by appearing in the April edition of the nationwide Cineworld Unlimited magazine, which is distributed free to all its 78 cinemas in the UK.

Mark, who has a degree in Film and Television Production from Bucks New University in High Wickham, has already directed music videos for successful artists on the British underground circuit, including rapper Mr ShaoDow. He also filmed a documentary called Mental Health in the Community, which led him to be interviewed on BBC's Look East in June 2009.

Mark added: "I got into this from watching music videos as a teenager. I was really interested in the fact that it was another form of art on top of an art form already there in the music. I have always been interested in artistic invention."

"This is a really enjoyable hobby for me but I hope it can develop into a career in the future."

Naked ambition: some of those already signed up to the walk help promote September's fundraiser. CP

Girls asked to take a walk – for charity

A CANCER hospice is calling on women to sign up to its biggest fundraiser of the year.

St Nicholas Hospice Care is looking for women to join its third annual Girls' Night Out – an 11.2-mile walk around the streets of Bury St Edmunds on September 17 while wearing only pyjamas.

Last year's women-only event raised nearly £90,000 for the Bury St Edmunds hospice, which also runs hospice at home services in Haverhill.

In their rush to sign up, this sassy group of women forgot one essential – their nightwear – at the event's launch party.

This year's walk will also

BY JACK GROVE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

include a new six-mile route to allow more people to take part. Jenny Baskett, events and challenges fundraiser, said: "Girls' Night Out is a great way to support your local hospice – but there is also a tremendous sense of fun and camaraderie on the walk.

"Women who took part last year will remember the eye-catching flashing bunny ears they wore – but this year we have something even more 'girly' in store.

"September may seem a long way off, but if you already know you want to take part in the Girls' Night Out, why not sign up now and get started with raising sponsorship money?

"We hope those who took part last year will invite their friends, family and work colleagues along this year," said Jenny.

"As well as raising great sums of money for the hospice, the aim of the Girls Night Out is to have fun – which means all women, of any age or ability, can take part."

Last year's walk was the most successful fundraising event in the charity's history, with 550 women taking part.

For more information, contact Jenny on (01284) 715583, email jenny.baskett@stnh.org.uk or go to www.stnicholashospicecare.org.uk

Training day

EMPLOYERS can apply for workplace training through West Suffolk College.

West Suffolk Local Strategic Partnership training includes workshops on effective time and email management, customer service, and the use of social media in a business context. The subsidised courses cost £20 per person per day. There is further support for English, maths and IT training. All businesses in Haverhill are eligible, and there is a course venue at the Learning Shop in High Street.

For more information, contact Linda Dennison on (01284) 716387.

Carers' appeal

AN URGENT appeal has been launched for anyone in Suffolk who has considered fostering or adopting a child to come forward.

The county's Fostering and Adoption Services claim that there are currently almost 800 children in care in Suffolk and more than 40 are waiting to be adopted. But there is a shortage of carers and adopters for these young people.

To find out more about fostering, call 0800 328 2148 or email fostering@suffolk.gov.uk

To find out more about adoption, call 0800 389 9417 or email adoption@suffolk.gov.uk

Blaze drama

FLAMES from a bonfire got out of control and spread to a wood store. Emergency services were called to Ann Suckling's Lane in Haverhill shortly before 4.40pm on Monday.

Illegal worker slept in cellar under store

AN ILLEGAL immigrant has been caught working in a town convenience store by the UK Border Agency.

Immigration officers raided the Primrose Mini Market in Camps Road, Haverhill, on Monday, April 4 after checks had revealed that a member of staff had no permission to be in the country.

The 34-year-old Indian man gave a false name to officers when they searched the premises but his fingerprints showed that he had overstayed a visitor's visa.

The search of the Primrose Hill property also revealed the man was living on site. Officers found a makeshift bed in the cellar, among the shop's stock.

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Jack Davis, chief immigration officer, said: "In illegal working cases like this it is often not only the immigration offenders who face serious consequences.

"Businesses that knowingly employ people with no right to work in the UK or who fail to carry out mandatory pre-employment checks are also in trouble. Fines of up to £10,000 per illegal worker can be imposed on companies that break the law."

Mr Davis added that details of the man's living conditions would be passed onto St Edmundsbury Borough Council's environmental health department."

The store must now prove that the correct checks were made on the individual or it will face a hefty fine. Meanwhile, the offender is awaiting his removal from the UK.

Anyone who suspects that illegal workers are being employed at a business in Suffolk can contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Dualling begins next year

THE last single carriageway section of the A11 through Norfolk and Suffolk will be transformed next year.

The Government plans to dual the nine-mile stretch of road between Barton Mills and Thetford in a £131 million scheme.

Matthew Hancock, Conservative MP for West Suffolk, said: "I am delighted that the Department of Transport has announced it will dual the A11 within the next financial year.

"Thanks to the planned improvements, millions of people will get home more quickly and safely than before."

Burglars take MP3 player

A FLAT'S window was smashed and an MP3 player stolen from inside the property late at night.

The incident occurred between 10pm and 10.30pm on Saturday at a home in High Street, Haverhill.

Offenders got in through an unlocked window and stole the music player. They also broke a window during the break-in.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to DC Richard Morgan at West Suffolk CID on (01284) 774100.

In store, in charge: new Sainsbury's manager Shaun Gadsby

Picture: Warren Gunn 726548.

Store boss looks to fresh challenges

THE new manager of a supermarket has said he is very excited to be working in Haverhill and has encouraged any customers who feel the shop could be improved to come forward.

Shaun Gadsby has taken the reins at Sainsbury's superstore in Haycock's Road outside Haverhill, after serving 19 years with the company.

For the last five years the 38-year-old has managed stores in Essex and Hertfordshire and he is looking forward to the new challenge.

He said: "I am new to the area and am asking customers to give me feedback on how the store is running.

"I want to get to know the town and so far I have really enjoyed my time here."

Mr Gadsby, who lives in Walton on the Naze, is supported in his role by deputies Martin Balmer and Neil Miller.

The shop, which employs more than 340 people, is different from anywhere Mr Gadsby has worked before.

He said: "I have not experienced such a thriving online shopping operation before. The service we provide has become very popular with people from Haverhill and beyond."

ADVERTISING FEATURE

On Queen Street: Suffolk Music Centre covers all sound needs.

SUFFOLK Music Centre, known as The Record Peddler for the past 10 years, has now opened its doors and is stocking a greater range of both musical instruments and cds, dvds and vinyl records.

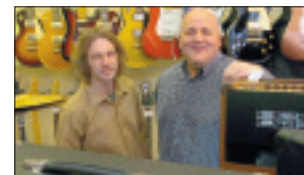

The popular shop, which has expanded to larger premises next door, caters for everyone from school-children to professional musicians.

Band equipment is a speciality, with everything you could need including PA systems and speakers.

A much-needed feature of the new shop is its band practice room, fully equipped with sound and recording facilities which make cutting a demo disc simple. If you need a pick-me-up, there's an Italian coffee machine with your name on it.

This room is also available for music tuition and the Suffolk Music Centre is actively looking for tutors in any discipline.

If you can't find what you're looking for, ask – the shop has a brilliant contacts list, and can supply anything from a tambourine to a grand piano.

The new shop also incorporates Richard Hudspith Musical Instrument Repairs, and the experienced Richard is able to repair or setup any stringed instrument in-store.

Visit the only music shop in Haverhill, and you'll see it's ready to give rival shops in Bury, Cambridge and Sudbury a run for their money, with competitive prices.

The shop is also able to supply schools with instruments, and staff are happy to quote music teachers or head teachers for their supplies.

The shop is staffed by friendly faces Adrian, Richard and Colin with Sunday girl Chelsea.

Its opening times are 9am-5pm Monday-Saturday, 9am-4pm on Sunday, while the practice room can be booked to stay open until 10pm.

Staff would like to thank all customers past, present and future for their support. Visit the Suffolk Music Centre at 1A Queen Street, Haverhill or call (01440) 709911.

The Big British Break

Sunday 17 April

Fire cuts a 'danger to our safety'

FIREFIGHTERS have called frontline budget cuts the "most damaging and dangerous ever seen in Suffolk" – and are demanding that the Government invests in, rather than cuts, local fire and rescue services.

If the Suffolk County Council plans go ahead, Haverhill will be left with no full-time firefighters at weekends, having serious repercussions on a growing town, according to the Fire Brigade's Union (FBU).

An 8,000 word document, prepared by FBU members, has been circulated around the county and uses Haverhill Fire Station as one case study.

Andy Message, acting brigade secretary, said: "We have consulted our members who are the uniformed professionals in various levels of the service and we have submitted a full response to the fire cuts proposals on their behalf.

"And when our members are worried, the public should worry too."

While Haverhill Fire Station will not be closed and its fire engines are to remain, the FBU said the town will suffer if it relies purely on part-timers and volunteers.

The response reads: "Suffolk County Council's research has stated that between the hours of 8am and 6pm on Saturdays and Sundays, the public will have to wait just over four minutes more for a fire engine to arrive.

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"But four minutes meant a great deal to the owner of a business in Boundary Road, Haverhill on Saturday, March 12 when full-time firefighters were able to respond immediately to a large fire."

The FBU added that quick response to traffic collisions was also vital, stating that "fires and other accidents are not a Monday to Friday, 9 to 5 thing."

A bitter pill to swallow for the union is the knowledge that Haverhill firefighters' preventive work in the community may have justified the cuts in part, due to the lack of fires in the town, but the FBU said their valuable community work would be a huge loss.

The letter continues: "Haverhill Fire Station has a long tradition of carrying out a great deal of proactive work in the community and has made incidents less frequent, not only at weekends during the day, but also at night and during the working week."

"Removing the full-time firefighters at weekends will leave a gap in advice, will mean fewer visits to the homes of vulnerable people and leave the community less safe than it is today."

Suffolk County Council claims the cuts were forced upon them when its grants were drastically reduced by the Coalition Government at a time of austerity, but will not mean a reduction in public safety.

"Unless people adopt cats from the branch, these cats cannot be helped and may be abandoned." If you would like to help, call (01440) 730096 or visit www.stourvalley.cats.org.uk

Church concert

ALL are welcome to attend a choir performance of Olivet to Calvary, by J.H. Maunders, in the lead up to Easter.

The concert at St Mary's Church, Haverhill, will take place at 6pm this Sunday – Palm Sunday. A sacred cantata, Olivet to Calvary recalls the scenes that mark the last few days of Jesus's life on Earth.

The work, for tenor and baritone solos, chorus and organ, will be interspersed with well-known hymns sung by the congregation.

Lead theft charge

TWO men have been charged with stealing lead from a house.

Marc Prime, 32, of Cangle Junction, Haverhill, and John Jones, 42, of Oxford Meadow in Sible Hedingham, Essex, are due before Bury St Edmunds Magistrates on April 21.

The alleged theft took place at a home in Deans Close, Haverhill on January 25.

Specials name new chief to head western policing

Top cop: Matt Bennington.

WEST Suffolk Special Constabulary has a new superintendent.

Matt Bennington has been promoted from operations Inspector for the west, after previous Special Superintendent Dean Knight was promoted to Deputy Chief Officer.

S/Supt Bennington, who lives in Stowmarket with his wife and daughter, has served with the Specials for 19 years and collected his Long Service Bar last month.

He said: "I have been working my way through the ranks and I am delighted to be chosen as the new Special Superintendent for the whole west.

"In my new role I hope to continue to develop the Special Constabulary, improving the ways our team can help the Regular officers police the county and keep Suffolk safe."

Special Deputy Chief Officer Knight said: "Matt is an exceptional officer with great leadership skills, and will make a big difference in supporting the policing family in the west of the county."

Thieves in car crimes spree

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CRIMINALS broke into three cars and tried to steal two of them in the most recent spate of weekend vandalism and theft.

The crime spree happened in Haverhill between 3pm on Saturday and 10.15am on Sunday, and Suffolk police have suggested the same offenders were involved on each occasion.

A Peugeot 205 was one of the targets in Bute Court. Its window was smashed and a mobile phone stolen. The ignition was also tampered with but the thieves failed to get the vehicle running and left.

The window of a Citroen AX was also broken in Gloucester Road. Once more the ignition had been tampered with.

The third offence was in Rowan Close where a silver and blue Mitsubishi Pajero was broken into by again smashing a window. In this case, a satellite navigation system was taken.

Calls in relation to any of these incidents should be made to Pc Jake Lees at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

A spokeswoman for Suffolk police said: "Attempts were made to steal two cars in Haverhill on Friday night/Saturday morning.

"Fortunately they were not removed but damage was caused. Anyone who may have seen any persons acting suspiciously around these vehicles parked in Bute Court and Gloucester Road should contact police.

"Vehicles should be parked securely in a garage where possible, or in a well-lit, public area. Always leave vehicles secure and remove items of value whilst unattended."

Having trouble with your Freeview TV channels?

It may be due to the digital TV switchover happening in your area.

Lost some of your channels?

First, make sure you have correctly re-tuned. Choose 'first time installation' or 'factory reset' to remove all the old channels and load the new ones. (Just selecting 'add channels' won't work.)

Channels still missing?

If you've done that and are still missing channels, you may need to do a 'manual re-tune'.

Got the wrong regional channels after re-tuning?

Your preferred services are probably a bit further down the list of channels. You can add the channels to your 'favourites' list if your equipment has one.

Don't have a favourites option?

You will need to do a 'manual re-tune'. This will enable you to put your channels where you want them on the channel list.

MUSICAL TRIO:
Hazel O'Connor,
Clare Hirst and Sarah Fisher take to the stage at the arts centre tonight at 8pm.

Hazel and the Hogs are here

Hazel O'Connor – who found fame in the 1980s with the film and album Breaking Glass – teams up with saxophonist Clare Hirst and pianist Sarah Fisher at Haverhill Arts Centre tomorrow night.

Hazel O'Connor and The Bluja Project is a jazzy-bluesy mix of classics such as My Funny Valentine and Stormy Weather, alongside O'Connor originals.

The trio take to the stage from 8pm.

■ Steve Lockwood returns to the arts centre for another harmonica workshop on Saturday with a batch of brand new songs. No matter what your level – from complete beginner to advance – this session will help improve your blues and pop playing.

Harmonicas are available to buy on the day. The workshop starts at 10am and runs until 3pm.

■ Front man and lead guitarist Tony McPhee is back at the arts centre with Groundhogs on Saturday, with all the old Hogs' numbers, as well as new material from his forthcoming album.

Emerging in the early 60s as a blues band, they were noted for backing American blues artists such as John Lee Hooker and evolved an iconic, individual rock-based sound with their popular album, Split, with wailing guitar solos that became the soundtrack for many a bedroom air guitar hero! Get rockin' from 8pm.

■ The Arnold Sinfonia take to the arts centre stage on Sunday at 7.30pm with Music For String Orchestra, with Mikhail Nemtsov on cello (prize-winner at last September's Haverhill Soloist competition) and Kevin Hill conducting.

The programme will include Copland, Bach, Bach Stokowski, Glazunov, van Goens, Delius, Gorecki and Jenkins.

■ And now something for children ages 4 and above, a 45-minute show presented by Garlic Theatre, Little Red Robin Hood on Tuesday, April 19.

There is a merry mix up in the forest involving glove puppets, false teeth and a frying pan. Why is Robin Hood wearing girls' clothes and what is lurking behind the trees? Is it the Sheriff of Nottingham or the big bad wolf? Come along at 11am when two classic tales are interwoven in a fast and funny family show.

■ Regulars art centre guests Hull Truck Theatre, present DH Lawrence's controversial work, Lady Chatterley's Lover, on Thursday, April 21 at 7.30pm.

Lady Constance Chatterley is trapped in a loveless marriage and finds herself in the arms of another man. As her passionate love affair with the gamekeeper reaches its climax, the constraints of a class-led society are broken down. This performance features strong language and is suitable for those aged over 15.

■ On the cinema front, Reel Culture film Neds (18) on Monday, April 18 at 7.45pm, is the unforgettable story of a bright young boy who turns to a life of crime in the ganglands of 1970s Glasgow.

For the children, and adults who fancy a laugh, there's Gnomeo and Juliet (U) showing on Wednesday, April 20 at 10.30am and 2.30pm. Garden gnomes Gnomeo and Juliet have as many obstacles to overcome as their quasi namesakes when they are caught up in a feud between neighbours.

A minx in the mix of Christie's whodunit

Andy set to mock it all . . .

TREADING THE BOARDS: Ali Bastian.

IT'S impossible to be snifty with Ali Bastian. She may be two hours late to our interview, but she is all politeness when her call finally connects for our chat.

"I'm so sorry for calling you so late," she breathes, her voice full of genuine concern. "My boiler broke just as we were due to start and I had to get a man round. . ."

No problem, I assure her – we've all been there. Actually, the idea that the glamorous actress/queen of the ballroom is stricken down with domestic appliance issues like the rest of us is rather endearing.

This down-to-earth warmth, evident particularly throughout her successful run on Strictly Come Dancing in 2009, has gained Bastian a lot of fans.

Bastian is soon to arrive in Cambridge as part of the cast of the Agatha Christie Theatre Company's production of Verdict, a tense murder-mystery following the fortunes of an idealistic professor and his invalid wife.

The brilliant Professor Hendryk leads a content and morally upstanding life, but his world is turned upside-down when the prospect of life-saving treatment for his invalid wife persuades him to take on a new pupil against his better judgement; the spoilt, conniving minx Helen.

"The tour is going great," Bastian, who plays Helen, says eagerly. "Full houses everywhere we've gone which has been fantastic. It's a really fun play, really different to anything I've done before. And it's different from Christie's other plays – it isn't your typical murder mystery. The murder actually takes place on stage . . . I hope that's not giving too much away!"

Known mainly for her television work (she played Pc Sally Armstrong in The Bill and Becca Dean in Hollyoaks), Bastian is clearly enjoying the challenge of being part of a stage company.

"I've done a lot of telly work, which I enjoy, but it's a very different way of working. It's all so quick and you often don't have time to rehearse. Whereas in something like this you've got time – which I think is the real difference – to really get inside the play and explore it. I feel like it's a good learning curve."

Bastian's Helen is a much more devious, villainous character than any she's played before.

"She's quite dark and a very resourceful young lady; she's described as a bit of a minx," Bastian says. "She's very spoiled and has always had her own way, so when somebody says no to her it doesn't go down very well."

Is it quite fun to play someone a bit nasty?

"Really fun!" she laughs. "She's a really great character to play and really different to the ones I usually play."

HAILED the King of political comedy – star of Mock the Week, Andy Parsons, brings his satirical observations to Cambridge Corn Exchange tomorrow.

A Footlights graduate (all the best ones are), Parsons studied Law at Christ's College and went on to work on a legal case at the Greenock shipyards, which he has described as "the most tedious thing I have ever done". From there he went to work on ITV's Spitting Image, and began establishing his stand-up reputation at The Comedy Store.

Recent political events have provided plenty of fuel for the Time Out Award Winner's Gruntled show – expect bankers, the budget and the coalition government to spent a long while in the firing line.

We might also get an insight into the off-camera antics at Mock The Week where, apparently, the panel employ devious tactics to cheat the editing process.

The show starts at 8pm. Tickets are £15 from (01223) 357851 / www.cornex.co.uk

The big film

RIO 2D and 3D
certificate U 95m

CARLOS Saldanha, director of the Ice Age films, ventures to sunnier climes for this joyous computer-animated romantic comedy.

Set to intoxicating Brazilian rhythms and bursting with colour, Rio follows the same template as Ice Age, introducing us to a menagerie of wacky and neurotic critters whose fates rest in the balance. Slapstick comedy comes from a gang of monkeys, who pick the pockets of unsuspecting tourists, and a bulldog suffering from excessive saliva.

Drool is cool as the mangy mutt and his chums prove that teamwork can overcome any obstacle and unite the entire feathered and furry cast for a song-and-dance number over the end credits.

Blu (voiced by Jesse Eisenberg) is a domesticated blue macaw who lives in relative luxury in the sleepy community of Moose Lake, Minnesota. One day Brazilian conservationist Tulio (Rodrigo Santoro) arrives in Moose Lake to ask Blu's owner Linda to take Blu to Rio de Janeiro so the rare bird can mate with the only known female blue macaw, Jewel (Anne Hathaway). She and Blu head to South America, which is in the grip of carnival season. But no sooner has Blu met Jewel than the birds are kidnapped by greedy animal smugglers led by Marcel (Carlos Ponce).

While Blu is a scaredy cat resigned to his fate, Jewel orchestrates a daring escape bid, evading the clutches of the smuggler's feathered sidekick, a conniving cockatoo called Nigel (Jemaine Clement). Blu and Jewel must rely on the help of a toucan called Rafael (George Lopez) and wise-cracking city birds Pedro (Will.i.am) and Nico (Jamie Foxx) to find their way back to Linda and Tulio.

Rio treads a familiar and predictable path but does so in style, opening with a glorious aerial sequence through the Brazilian rainforests where birds soar and swoop in choreographed formations.

Eisenberg has his character's neuroses down pat, Hathaway is gleeful as the feisty heroine while Clement has a ball as the feathered fiend whose tongue-in-cheek dialogue is littered with puns and delightful alliterations.

Why small spaces can be the finest frontiers

EVEN the smallest outside space can be made into an oasis of calm, a bolthole where you can unwind after a hard day at work or entertain during the summer evenings.

If you have a small garden, you need to plan carefully to ensure it meets your individual needs, says TV gardening expert Alan Titchmarsh, whose new book, Small Gardens, offers a wealth of tips on how to make the most of even the tiniest plot.

"Keep it simple," he advises. "You can make it interesting without it being fussy. Have good clean lines and interesting angles."

"Consider if it's worth having a lawn at all. Bear in mind if it's going to be big enough to be able to sit on and to be able to mow. Can you manoeuvre a lawn mower around it and easily dispose of the clippings?"

"If the answer's no to all of this, then go for a different surface, whether it's gravel or paving or decking."

Seating is likely to be the

by Hannah Stephenson

biggest priority, he observes.

"Look at your plot to find out where the path of the sun is because the most important thing for most people in the garden is where they're going to sit."

"Work out the place that will be most convenient, whether you want to sit in the sun or the shade. You may need your patio to be at the bottom of the garden rather than next to the house."

"Always make the seating area bigger than you think you'll need because once you put a table and four chairs out there and you've pulled them out you don't want to be falling over the edge."

There are ways to make a small garden look bigger, he adds.

Hiding your boundary with plants can increase the sense of space, while placing a small statue at the end of a narrow path will make the distance seem greater because your eyes want to believe the statue is life size.

"Allow yourself some space. Gaps in an enclosed space encourage you to look through them into the space beyond, while looking from an open area into a densely planted one can give a sense of infinity."

"A blend of open and enclosed spaces will enable you to blur the boundaries of your plot and make your small garden seem more spacious."

Focal points are also important and a few large features are better than many small ones in a small space, says Titchmarsh.

"Don't think that because you've got a small garden you can't have anything of stature. Tall plants are fine as long as they're not spreading out too much or shading the garden or filling it with lots of foliage."

"Tall plants draw your eye up and out into the world beyond and help to link the land with the sky."

Small trees, neat evergreens and shrubs which can be pruned to appear tree-like in outline are perfect structural plants for small gardens.

Colour won't need to be so prevalent in a small plot.

"You'll need less colour in a smaller garden. What's more important is structure, form and perspective. I like to use evergreens because even in a tiny garden it gives it structure in winter."

"Highlight the colour by giving it a good green background with foliage. Use colour more sparingly and it can still be effective."

Just because you have a small garden doesn't mean you always have to go for dwarf plants, he adds. "Don't feel that everything has to be squat, or you'll end up with what looks like a tray of scones. Allow yourself one, two or three architectural plants."

■ Alan Titchmarsh's How To Garden Series: Small Gardens; Growing Bulbs; Wildlife; Pests And Problems; Roses; Small Gardens, published by BBC Books, priced £6.99 each.

DIG HERE: you'll need less colour in a smaller garden, says Alan Titchmarsh.

Land Rover's Evoque is priced at under £30k

LAND Rover this week announced that new Range Rover Evoque prices in the UK will start at £27,955 for an eD4 Pure 5-door 6 Speed manual 2WD model. The 4WD equivalent is priced at £28,705.

With a choice of three engines, two body styles, three design themes and a wide range of options and accessories, the new Range Rover Evoque offers customers significant choice across a range of price points. The top-spec Si4 6 Speed automatic Dynamic coupé with LUX pack is available for £44,320.

The Range Rover Evoque will be offered in both five-door and coupé forms and will go on-sale from September with both petrol and diesel options.

The updated 2.2-litre turbodiesel has 148bhp or 187bhp derivatives. The 2WD (on-sale early 2012) coupé version combined with the 148bhp 2.2-litre engine is set to achieve sub 130g/km CO2.

The new 236bhp 2.0-litre Si4 petrol engine combines direct fuel injection, turbo-charging and twin variable valve timing for exceptional fuel-efficiency and delivers 0-60mph in 7.1 seconds.

In place of a traditional trim hierarchy, customers can choose from three distinct design themes, which include many features as standard. A wide range of personalisation opportunities are also available, allowing customers to fully tailor the Evoque to individual tastes and requirements.

Options available

include 12 exterior colours, three contrasting roof treatments, seven alloy wheel designs, 16 contrasting interiors and a full sized, fixed, panoramic glass roof. A new online configurator is now live, making it simple for customers to create their perfect Range Rover Evoque.

The online configurator can be found at www.landrover.com/gb/en/r/range-rover-evoque/build.

The Range Rover Evoque: From £28,705.

Charlie's a real four-ce . . .

Haverhill Rovers 12 Warboys 0
 Cambridge and District Colts League, under-12C

HAVERHILL Rovers wound up their season with the demolition of Warboys.

Two early goals from Charlie Stephens set them on their way and he added a further two in the second half. Chinomso Nkem-Paul (2), Scott Jessop, Jordan Hopkins, John Burrell (2), Billy Campbell and Liam Baker.

Such was Rovers' dominance they also had a goal disallowed and Campbell missed from the penalty spot.

Lawrence leads way as Haverhill savage Tigers

Winning with a smile: Action from Haverhill under-eights' series CP

&gt;&gt; UNDER-EIGHT

A 21-TRY display against Ely Tigers helped Haverhill's under-eights end a promising season on a high note.

They won their three-game series at the Castle Playing Fields by an aggregate 105-40.

They won 35-5, 35-25 and 35-10, signalling their intentions when John Adams scored the first of his three tries from the opening kick off.

Hayden Lawrence led the scoresheets with five touchdowns, followed by Marshall McKay 3, Craig Martin-Gowing 4, Max Dearman 4, Oliver Loveridge 2.

&gt;&gt; UNDER-SEVEN

HAVERHILL'S youngest side battled hard but were just shaded 30-25 by a good Ely side.

Bolstered by new recruits, they started brightly with two tries for Kai Rintoul, Ben McKay ran in two more and Be Warren marked his return with a touchdown.

&gt;&gt; UNDER-11

JOSH Moseley and Oliver Cooper scored early tries as Haverhill made a flying start to their third game of the season against Ely. And with Brandon McKay converting both, the home side looked to be in a good position to avenge two earlier defeats against the same opposition.

Skipper Kit Browne crashed over for another converted score before the side lost momentum as Ely started to claw their way back.

A smart Steven Adams score midway through the second half was all Haverhill had to show for their efforts as Ely bounced back to win 40-28.

Dadds our boy: Gary Dadds (with certificate) surrounded by members of the Chalkstone club CP

Dadds the example

FIVE years of dedicated training have helped Gary Dadds become the latest member of the Chalkstone Karate Club to gain a coveted black belt first dan (shodan).

Dadds, of Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, successfully passed the gruelling examination at the Toyakwai Karate Association headquarters on March 26th.

The 56-year-old, who joined his son at the club in 2006, had to demonstrate his knowledge and skill at the exam by performing various techniques including kicks, punches and blocks, balance kicking, sparring (fighting) and Kata (a preset sequence of moves).

A spokesman for the club said: "We are very proud of Gary and his dedication to his karate."

■ The Chalkstone Karate Club meets on Tuesdays at the Chalkstone Community Centre, Strasbourg Square from 7pm. For more information contact instructor Steve Hart on 07747 063981 or visit their website at www.chalkstonekarateclub.co.uk

Sands of time run out for sad Rovers

Cambs Invitation Cup final:
Haverhill Rov 0 Mildenhall Tn 2

HAVERHILL Rovers boss Peter Betts had singled out John Sands as the main threat to their chances of lifting the Cambs Invitation Cup.

And he was disappointed to be proved right, with the Mildenhall striker scoring twice in the final at the R Costings Abbey Stadium on Tuesday to ensure his side retained the silverware.

"He was the difference," said Betts. "No disrespect to Mildenhall, but they're an average side apart from him."

"They're hard working and put a lot of effort in. But take him out of the side and they're a mid-table team."

Both goals came in the space of two second-half minutes, the striker firing in a free kick after 64 minutes before heading in James Paterson's cross seconds later.

Stuart Wardley had Rovers' best chance of the first half – a header – while Dalton O'Brien wriggled free of the Mildenhall defence early in the second half but was unable to get his shot on target.

Substitute Callum Harrison almost got on the end of Wardley's flick in the 80th minute and Jack Higgs' shot was blocked in the dying minutes.

But that was as good as it got for Rovers and Betts said: "It was one of those things. We controlled the game for a good hour without really penetrating in the final third. Then they scored from a free-kick that maybe we should have dealt with a bit better. It was always going to be tough to come back when they scored their second so soon afterwards."

"I can't fault the players, they worked hard but it was a disappointing result."

Betts said the players would now concentrate on a strong finish to the Ridgeons League, Premier Division season – their hopes lifted by a 3-1 win at Newmarket on Saturday which ended a five-match run which had yielded just a point. Two goals from Harrison and another from O'Brien did the job for a team showing nine changes with the cup final in mind.

Rovers are at Brantham Athletic on Saturday, before facing Norwich United at the New Croft on Tuesday.

■ However, the mood at the club was lifted last night (Wednesday) when the reserves won the Suffolk Senior Reserves Cup. A last-gasp goal from Harrison, who had earlier given them the lead in the 27th minute, sealed a 2-1 win over AFC Sudbury to earn the club's first piece of silverware after their move to the New Croft.

The result was especially sweet for the Swallow family with 46-year-old Gary in goal as an emergency measure following an injury to usual keeper Anthony Choat, and his 17-year-old son Ryan playing on the right of midfield.

Cup that: Two-goal Callum Harrison (main picture) in action in the Suffolk Senior Reserves Cup final against AFC Sudbury on Wednesday. Harrison's goals sealed a 2-1 win to complete a good night for the Swallow family, keeper Gary and midfielder Ryan (bottom right) and easing the pain of the Cambs Invitation Cup final where John Sands (below left) fired Mildenhall to glory against Rovers' first team. ### Liam's in single figures on merit

LIAM Merritt, from Haverhill's junior section, scored a stunning nett 66 in the men's medal competition, which attracted 94 entrants. It was also used as the first leg of the Cecil Darken Cup for the over-50s. Merritt's brilliant round has brought his handicap into single figures – he now plays off nine.

Details. Division One: 1 Liam Merritt 76-10-66, 2 Andy Fish 74-4-70, 3 Andy Softley 83-12-71. Division Two: 1 Simon Price 84-17-67, 2 Bryan Graham 87-17-70, 3 Stuart King 83-13-70. Division Three: 1 Geoff Galloway 94-26-68, 2 Paul Meeks 92-23-69, 3 Terry Symonds 98-28-70.

The medal event was also the qualifier for the National PGA Pro-Am, sponsored by Virgin Atlantic, Stuart King qualifying on countback to accompany head pro Paul Wilby to the regional final at Thorpeness in August.

■ Haverhill were beaten by five by Stowmarket in the opening round of the Parks Trophy, the team of eight 4BBB for players 55 and over although two must be a minimum 65.

Results (Haverhill names first): Eamonn Bareham & Gerry Scott won 4-up against David Barnes & Mick Cobbold, Dennis Harkness & Chris Briggs all square against Ken McCredie & Mike Toon, Derek Thomas and Gordon Price lost 6-down to Nobby Clark and Keith Rooney, Alan Carter and Eric Kiddle lost 3-down to Bill Darling and Jeff Gillham.

■ A nett 69 from Pat Kennedy earned her victory in the ladies' April Medal competition. As a result her handicap has been trimmed to 17.

Midweek results: 1 Jacqueline Condon 89-19-70, 2 Judy Farren 106-34-72, 3 Sally Price 98-24-74. Saturday: 1 Pat Kennedy 87-18-69, 2 Chris Bridgeman 112-36-76, 3 Sue Carr 89-13-76.

■ The ladies' team were just pipped by Saffron Walden, losing 1½-2½. That result came in a mixed spell for the Seniors, who beat Lord Notleys 4½-3½, but lost to Newmarket (6-2), Gilton (4½-3½) and Braintree (4½-3½).

Chandler's booster

BRIAN Chandler was in optimistic mood after an encouraging start to his campaign in the Mazda MX5 Championship at Silverstone.

The 32-year-old from Haverhill finished third in the championship's first race and admitted afterwards that even he was surprised to record such positive results.

"I didn't expect that," he said. "This is only my second year of racing, so it was great to get such good results." Chandler qualified for the first race in fourth, and after he and his fellow front-runners had opened a healthy lead over the rest of the field, he grabbed third place on the final lap, overtaking the experienced Paul Sheard.

An accident meant the second scheduled race was cancelled, so Chandler will resume his campaign at Rockingham on Saturday.
